

"All the News That's Fit to Print"

WORLD JOURNAL ... No. 59,436 ... FRIDAY, MAY 27, 2022 ... $3.00

Family members of Leon Rubio, who was killed in the massacre, kneeling at a cross bearing her name in the center of the Uvalde, Texas.

FAMILIES CRITICIZE POLICE FOR DELAYS IN TEXAS RAMPAGE

School Safety Plans Fail. What Now? Hearing Gunfire and Pushing for Action

By MIKE BAKER and DANA GOLDSTEIN. In August 2020, law enforcement officers from five agencies converged inside the hallways of a school in Uvalde, Texas...

What's News

- McKay and Dollar Tree reported strong sales increases for their most recent quarters as shoppers showed renewed interest while Dollar General posted flat sales but missed its outlook for the full year. AI
U.S. stocks rose, with the S&P 500 and Nasdaq jumping 2% and 2.7%, respectively...

Kremlin Makes Push to Bolster Economy as Sanctions Take Toll

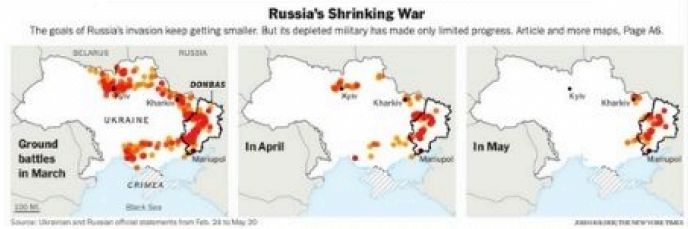

This article is by Patricia Cohen, Erika Nunez, Valeriy Sazonov and Michael Levason. Gripped by heavy economic sanctions and increasingly isolated from Western suppliers...

U.S. and Its Allies Can't Agree On Defining Victory in Ukraine

This article is by David E. Sanger, Steven Erlanger and Eric Schmitt. WASHINGTON. Three months after Russia's invasion of Ukraine, America and its allies are quietly debating the inevitable question: How does this end?

Arguing for Concessions by Kyiv or Penalties for Moscow

The carnage has renewed a decades-old debate about how to end the U.S. and its allies are quietly debating the inevitable question: How does this end?

Russia's Shrinking War. The goals of Russia's invasion keep getting smaller. But its depleted military has made only limited progress. Article and more maps, Page A6.

G.O.P. Weaponizes Statehouses Against Green Corporate Goals

By DAVID GELLES and HIRSHKOTH TARBUCHI. In West Virginia, the state treasurer has passed money from BlackRock, the world's largest asset manager...

After Years of Paralysis on Guns, Senators Grasp Again for a Deal

By EMILY COCHRANE and KATE EDMONDSON. WASHINGTON. — After the deadliest school shooting in a decade, a small group of Republican and Democratic senators have begun an effort to pass a compromise on new gun laws...

World-Wide

- Local residents voiced anger about the time it took to end the mass shooting at an Uvalde, Texas, elementary school, an police said. AI
NORTH DAKOTA. Ukraine — The Russian soldier killed people outside to the shot must have had a change of heart, Malyur Dedyev recalled. AI

Angry Texas Parents Criticize Police Response to Shooting

UVALDE, Texas — Local residents voiced anger Thursday about the time it took to end the mass shooting at an elementary school here, as police laid out a fresh timeline that showed the gunman entered the building unobstructed after ignoring outside fire...

Resilient Shoppers Provide Retailers A Boost

Macy's, Dollar Tree Inc. reported strong sales as consumers buy work clothes, discount items. U.S. shoppers boosted spending at department stores and discount chains, showing resilience amid inflationary pressures...

Beatings, Executions Hunt Ukrainians As Summer Approaches

By TOMAS GROSS. NORTH DAKOTA. Ukraine — The Russian soldier killed people outside to the shot must have had a change of heart, Malyur Dedyev recalled. AI

Female Athletes Seek Control Off the Field

Stars such as Alex Morgan use growing popularity to push for financial changes. When U.S. soccer star Alex Morgan played in the 2015 Women's World Cup, her champion for the victorious U.S. team was in such short supply that her family and coach's find any. So a few days later she printed a flag and hid it in her locker...

Tesla Owners Are in Heated Race, But the Finish Line Keeps Moving. In contest to visit the most company charging stations, new ones keep coming.

INSIDE MANSION Demand soars for the waterfront homes of Wisconsin's Lakes. Geneva, MI. Demand for waterfront homes in Geneva, Michigan, is soaring. The homes are being sold for millions of dollars.

BUSINESS & FINANCE Broadcom's $61 billion deal for VMware is a bet on enterprise software. Broadcom's $61 billion deal for VMware is a bet on enterprise software.