

CHC BOLD PAC Endorses Tom Suozzi in the Special Election for New York's 3rd Congressional District

Washington, D.C. - Today CHC BOLD PAC is endorsing Tom Suozzi in the special election for New York's 3rd Congressional District. CHC BOLD PAC Chairwoman Linda Sánchez released the following statement on the endorsement:

“We’re thrilled to announce our support for Tom Suozzi in the special election for New York’s 3rd Congressional District. His years of service prove that he is not afraid to stand up to Republican extremism and fight for all New Yorkers. Suozzi will put people before politics, work to expand access to affordable health care, increase jobs, and protect reproductive rights,” said CHC BOLD PAC Chairwoman Linda Sánchez. “New Yorkers won’t forget that Republicans protected George Santos after a long saga of lies that ended with his expulsion from Congress. Tom Suozzi is a dedicated public servant who will honestly serve and deliver real solutions for all working families in New York.”

“I am grateful for the support and endorsement of CHC BOLD PAC. As a first-generation American, I stand with the men and women of CHC BOLD PAC committed to increasing diversity and fighting for change in the halls of Congress. Vamos a seguir adelante juntos!!!” said Tom Suozzi.

TOM SUOZZI

Tom Suozzi is a first-generation American who grew up in Glen Cove. His mother was a nurse and his father an immigrant from Italy. Tom was the youngest judge ever elected in the history of New York State. He graduated from Chaminade High School, Boston College, and Fordham University School of Law.

Tom's a devoted public servant, having been mayor of his hometown Glen Cove for eight years before serving as the County Executive for Nassau County for eight years. During his tenure as County Executive, Nassau’s crime rate reduced drastically and it was rated the safest community in the United States.

In 2016, Tom was elected to Congress and continued his record of delivering real solutions for working families for six years. He helped negotiate the Infrastructure and Jobs Act, which invested billions of dollars to improve New York’s infrastructure. He also worked to bring federal funds back to Nassau and Queens and helped pass legislation to lower the cost of insulin and other prescription drugs.

Tom and his wife Helene reside in Glen Cove. They have three children, Caroline, Joseph, and Michael.

CHC BOLD PAC

BOLD PAC is the campaign arm of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus (CHC) and is dedicated to increasing diversity in the House and Senate by getting more Latinos and Latinas elected. In 2022, BOLD PAC elected the largest Democratic CHC in history, bringing nine new Latinos to the House, including four in seats that were picked up by House Democrats. This was the result of over $6 Million in direct investments for Latino candidates, the largest sum in the organization's history. Additionally, BOLD PAC played an integral role in protecting the Democratic majority in the Senate by helping re-elect Senator Catherine Cortez Masto, the first and only Latina in the Senate.
