

Most K St leaders believe HHS banning artificial food dyes will be EFFECTIVE in improving Americans' health

How effective or ineffective do you believe each of the following policies implemented or proposed by HHS Secretary Robert F. Kennedy Jr. will be in improving Americans' health? (EFFECTIVE)

	TOTAL	DEM	GOP
Banning several artificial food dyes that were previously approved for use by the FDA	52%	46%	60%
Securing a pledge from health insurers to standardize prior authorization submissions and reduce the number of services subject to prior authorization	45%	40%	53%
Eliminating the FDA GRAS, or "generally recognized as safe," program for approval of food additives	21%	16%	27%
Changing some vaccine policies and guidelines and removing members of the vaccine advisory committee	7%	2%	13%
Advising pregnant women to avoid acetaminophen (Tylenol) due to a potential link to autism	6%	2%	10%
Having the CDC stop recommending fluoride in drinking water	5%	1%	9%

