"We strongly oppose changes to the slot and perimeter rules at Reagan National Airport (DCA). The Federal Aviation Administration and Metropolitan Washington Airports Authority have expressed serious concerns that adding flights at DCA will dramatically increase passenger delays and erode the operational integrity of the airport. Furthermore, inclusion of these provisions endangers timely passage of critical FAA Reauthorization legislation to improve the safety and efficiency of air travel for the entire system."