

With a few days to go before the election, I wanted to send a quick note of gratitude.

As you no doubt know, we are on the cusp of having a great night. And while I like winning as much as the next guy, I think more about the stakes of two more years of unchecked raw liberal policy being imposed all over the country. From asking Americans to pay off other people's college debt, to refusing to enforce laws at the border, to all but shutting down domestic oil drilling only to beg the Saudis and Venezuelans for oil - it must stop.

Back in the Spring of 2021, I told my team I was going to dedicate as much of my "off-time" as I could to helping the GOP take back the Senate, but I wanted to do so as efficiently as I could (I don't have a lot of "off-time"!)). So we embarked on doing something that has never been done before: we created a joint fundraising committee on behalf of every incumbent running for reelection, all the battleground Senate seats, and the NRSC. In addition, we have hosted events directly for Senate candidates when they come to Texas.

With the help of my team, to date we've been able to raise just shy of $20M for Senate Candidates and the NRSC.

Back to the gratitude: this would not have happened without you. Thank you for your support.

After the election I am going to sit down with my team and figure out how we can improve upon this inaugural effort. It is clear with friends like you, we can make this work again in 2024 when we will have even more on the line.

But first I am going to enjoy Tuesday night and spend some time figuring out how we can get this country back on track again.

Thanks again and let me know what I can do for you in the future.

Sincerely,

John
